

DEATH OF MISS BETTIE SUE CARNE.

9/6/13

The many friends of Miss Bettie Sue Carne were made sad when they learned of her death which occurred here about 3:30 o'clock Saturday morning. She had been ill about two weeks with typhoid fever. The burial was at Trenton Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, the funeral services being conducted by Revs. R. L. Norman and J. W. Irion, the latter of Trenton.

Miss Carne was a young lady of much worth and enjoyed the fullest confidence of a large circle of friends and acquaintances. She was a member of the Methodist Church, a loyal church worker, a teacher in Sunday school and was president of the Young Ladies' Missionary Society.

Two brothers and two sisters survive. They are: Arthur Carne of Dyer, Douglass Carne of Lincoln, Neb., Miss D. Carne of Lincoln, Neb., and Mrs. Lena Allen of near Jackson, Tenn.

The floral offerings were many, giving additional evidence of the love and esteem which the many held for this excellent young lady.

Mrs. Mattie C. Hale, an aunt of the deceased, and with whom she made her home, was taken with typhoid fever on Friday night before Miss Carne's death early the next morning. At this writing she is critically ill. She was not able to see the deceased after her death.
