Nat Carne Rites Held Wednesday

Services were held Wednesday at 2:30 at Karnes & Son Funeral Home in Dyer for Hugh Nathaniel Carne, life-long resident of Dyer, who died at the age of 46.

Rev. Dave Hilliard, pastor of Dyer First Methodist Church, officiated. He was assisted by Rev. Tommy Jackson, a former pastor. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery.

Mr. Carne suffered a heart attack at his home early Tuesday morning and died three hours later in Gibson General Hospital at Trenton.

He was born in Dyer, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carne.

He was a former grocery merchant and was a salesman for Trenton Wholesale Grocery Co. at the time of his death.

He was a member of First Methodist Church, a member of the board of stewards and a former Sunday School Superintendent. He was a World War II Veteran.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Lyda Rone Carne, a daughter, Natilee Carne, and a sister, Mrs. Marguerite Harrison, all of Dyer.
