ARTHUR M. HUTCHISON

Services Are Conducted For Dyer Resident

DYER, Tenn., July 28.—Arthur Marvin Hutchison, a retired lumber dealer, died after a heart attack Saturday morning at Webb-Williamson Hospital in Jackson, Tenn. He had undergone surgery Friday morning. He was 76.

Services were at 4 Sunday afternoon in First Methodist Church. The Rev. Ennis C. Thurmond of Memphis officiated. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery with Baird Brothers Funeral Home in charge.

Mr. Hutchison was a lifelong resident of Dyer. He had been associated with his father, the late E. E. Hutchison, in the lumber business for several years and had operated his own business for 35 years. He retired 15 years ago because of illness. He was married to the former Mrs. Kate Pearce of Dyer in 1914.

He also leaves a daughter, Miss Helen Hutchison of Bells, and two sisters, Mrs. Laverne Turner of Dyer and Mrs. Virgie Kennedy of St. Louis, Mo.
