

Resolutions

Whereas, God in his infinite wisdom has called home from her labors, Mrs. Arthur N. Carne, our beloved teacher and co-worker, be it resolved: First; that in the passing away of Mrs. Carne our church, Sunday school and missionary society has lost a valuable leader and teacher, consecrated faithful and true; and that the community has lost a noble christian woman whose saintly life was an inspiration and a benediction.

Second; that we thank God for her unselfish loyalty and devotion to the cause of Christ and for her beautiful example of loving service to others, especially for her short years of love and service to our church.

Third; that we may emulate the example of this noble one whose outstanding virtues were faith, serene hope, patience and love that never fails. These were set forth in her daily life. She was one of those rare and lovely spirits who radiated life and love as is exemplified in Christ Jesus.

Fourth, that although we feel keenly our loss sustained in the passing of this noble woman we bow in humble submission to His Holy Will, believing that all things work for the good of those who love the Lord.

Fifth, that we extend our heartfelt sympathy to her loved ones and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, one to be spread upon the minutes of the Sunday school, a copy be spread upon the minutes of the Woman's Missionary Society, and a copy be sent to The Tri-City Reporter for publication.

Respectfully submitted.

Mrs. J. E. Hall,
Mrs. H. E. Smith,
Mrs. Bess Freeland,
Mrs. Jno. Jackson,
Mrs. Jamie Baird.
